5 Draw Reformatory Terms on Indictments

Arraignments Held Friday

Only 2 Defendants Plead Not Guilty

Five men who pleaded guilty to indictments returned by grand jurors last Monday were sentenced to the Ohio Reformatory at Mansfield by Judge John P. Case in Common Pleas Court Friday morning.

Two others who entered guilty pleas were placed on probation and a third was committed to a state hospital for observation.

Two additional defendants pleaded not guilty to indictments and their cases will be tried in February. One arraignment was postponed at the request of Prosecuting Attorney Rollo M. Marchant who presented the facts in each case to the court.

RICHARD DOWNARD, 18, of 647 Harrison St., pleaded guilty to indictments for burglary, breaking and entering and operating an automobile without the owner's consent. He was sentenced to the reformatory for from one to 15 years on the first two charges and from one to 20 years on the other. The sentences will run concurrently.

Everett Eugene Bennett, 29, of 221 1/2 East St., received a 2-to-20-year reformatory sentence when he pleaded guilty to possession of narcotics (marijuana).

George Mootispaw, 22, Manford Eugene Mootispaw, 20, and Raymond E. Hurler, 19, all of Greenfield, drew one-to-15-year reformatory sentences on pleas of guilty to breaking and entering the Lucas Market on Route 22 east.

(THE ROSS COUNTY grand jury Thursday indicted George Mootispaw Jr., for "attempting to have carnal knowledge of a minor female, and Manford Eugene Mootispaw and Hurler, for rape.)

(They were arrested on Sept. 14 by Ross County sheriff's deputies and the charges were filed by Sheriff Fred J. Heinzelman. They were bound over to the grand jury following their arraignment in Municipal Court in Chillicothe.)

They were convicted of forcing James Douthitt, Covington, to drive them from this city to Washington C. H., Ohio, at gun point last July 7.

First A-Sub Work Is Done In Converted Ladies' Room

WASHINGTON — The first work on this country's pioneer nuclear submarine was done in an office converted from a ladies' powder room.

Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the Navy's top nuclear expert, related the incident to a Senate group to illustrate the slight official support he said he got when he first proposed the nuclear job project.

The admiral testified Monday at a closed-door hearing of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, which is investigating the nation's military readiness in the light of Russian scientific advances. Some of what Rickover said was disclosed at the time. More of his testimony was released today, presumably after security censorship.

Despite his experience in the nuclear field, Rickover said he has not been consulted about development of subs to launch ballistic missiles or about other advanced weapons.

Bulganin Insists On Summit Parley

WASHINGTON — Russia's latest and most insistent demand for an East-West summit conference on crucial cold war issues got intensive study and a cold reaction today in official Washington.

In a message to President Eisenhower, Premier Bulganin said he proposes to call an East-West summit meeting, perhaps in Geneva, in the next two or three months.

Pravda said Bulganin messages went to the 15 NATO nations and the other countries of the 82-member United Nations. Moscow radio said Switzerland and other nations not in the U.N. also received messages.

The announcement showed there was a new and insistent note in Bulganin's newest bid for a summit meeting. The Moscow wording was: "The Soviet government proposes to call in the course of the next two or three months of 1958 a conference of leading statesmen on a high level in which the heads of government will participate."

This stands as a declaration of intention to act with or without the agreement of any particular country such as the United States. There was no evidence the United States intends to change its basic policy against having a new top-level meeting under present conditions.

THE POLICY is that any such conference must be preceded by careful diplomatic exploration and evidence that the Soviet government is prepared to make concessions in its position on such issues as disarmament and German reunification.

Officials here were aware, however, that Bulganin's new diplomatic broadside may generate new hope in Europe for reducing the dangers of a devastating nuclear war.

Secretary of State Dulles was reported to have expressed some optimism on the prospect of resuming disarmament negotiations below the summit level. Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said Dulles, in talking with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, "expressed some hope about the future."

"He said he had reasons to believe Russia might be more amenable to discussion of disarmament later, that something may develop that would improve the climate for negotiation," Fulbright added, but said Dulles did not discuss his reasons.

Fulbright and several other members agreed, in commenting on the Russian note, that a summit conference is not indicated now, but they said there is a need for preliminary negotiations.

Russia already has rejected a NATO suggestion for a foreign

Death Takes Twins, 83, Only Minutes Apart

ST. LOUIS — Mrs. Janette Hamlyn of St. Louis and Mrs. Rose Herley of Grantsburg, Ill., twin sisters who would have been 84 Jan. 26, died Thursday within an hour and 45 minutes.

Mrs. Hamlyn was in a St. Louis hospital with pneumonia. Mrs. Herley died in Grantsburg, 120 miles southeast of here.

ministers' meeting as a means of breaking the arms deadlock. According to Moscow radio, which broadcast a summary, Bulganin's newest note also opposed foreign ministers' meeting, saying that "certain possible participants in a meeting at this level" would bring prejudices which might wreck the negotiations.

John D. Boone Dies in Hospital

Former Councilman And Industrialist

JOHN D. BOONE

John D. Boone, 72, of 504 Rawlings St., former Washington C. H. councilman and industrialist, died at 6:10 a. m. Friday in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus. He had been in failing health for more than a year and seriously ill for the last three months. He entered the hospital just a week ago.

Mr. Boone was born in Booneville, Va., near Roanoke, and came to Washington C. H. in 1920, when he founded the Washington Metal Products Co. on Rose Ave. on the site of the present Webber French Mfg. Co. plant.

After he sold this company, he founded the Washington Bronze and Aluminum Castings Co. on the B. & O. Railroad, immediately east of North St., in 1928. In 1946, he leased the building and equipment to C. H. Schurmer and Charles J. Terrell and retired.

Schurmer and Terrell incorporated the business and in 1949 Schurmer sold his stock to Mr. Boone. He and Terrell then operated the plant until 1955, when he sold his stock to Terrell and retired again.

Mr. Boone served four terms on the Washington C. H. Council, from 1944 through 1952, and then stepped out of public life.

He was a member of the Masonic Order and Eagles Lodge here. He was a trustee of the Eagles Lodge for many years, although he gave that up some time before he died.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Boone, and a brother, J. Cabel Boone of near Booneville.

Services will be held at 10 a. m. Monday in the Gerstner Funeral Home and burial will be in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 1 p. m. Saturday.

Dems Ask Ike To 'Blueprint' New Program

Show-Me Reaction Exemplified by Senate Chieftain

WASHINGTON — Democrats called on President Eisenhower today to back up with specific blueprints for action the eight-point program he laid before Congress Thursday.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas set the show-me tone of reaction to the proposals Eisenhower outlined in his State of the Union message. Eisenhower said they are needed to meet the growing space era threat of what he repeatedly called "Communist imperialism."

"The President has in general terms set forth some worthy objectives," Johnson said. "He has called for strengthening of our allies, greater understanding and commerce between nations and attempts to bring peace to the world. These have long been Democratic objectives."

"Now we are waiting for his blueprints for meeting those objectives. As soon as he lays them down, our committees will promptly consider his recommendations."

Although Johnson and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) both praised Eisenhower's speech, there was mounting evidence of Democratic disappointment that Eisenhower did not make any spectacular proposals for an immediate buildup in American military might.

An analysis of the President's proposals circulated among Democratic senators said that basically the message was "long on proposals and short on performance."

"Even the program to step up national security boils down to pumping a little more money into existing projects and promising 'aggressively to reorganize the defense structure,'" the analysis said.

Republicans were practically unanimous in their praise of Eisenhower's personally delivered message. Some Democrats lauded it but many were critical.

Rayburn said he was "glad to know the President is alive to what the American people are disturbed about and this is the bickering and dissension among the services in the Pentagon."

Leading off his eight points with his reference to defense reorganization, Eisenhower called for a speedup in production of missiles, nuclear submarines and other modern weapons. Congress seemed disposed to give him all the funds he might risk in this field, and possibly more.

Meanwhile, Nelson A. Rockefeller told investigating senators today a drastic overhaul of defense machinery and goals must "be taken now to assure our survival."

He said this was the unanimous opinion of some 20 national leaders who participated in a study of the present defense mechanisms and longrange policies.

Rockefeller testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee which has been probing deep into U. S. missile, satellite and weapons programs. The inquiry was touched off by the success of Soviet Sputniks and indications the Russians are ahead of this country in rocketry.

Rockefeller said this nation, as a leader of the free world, faces critical decisions in the next 10 to 15 years in the field of international security.

'Multiple Chief of Police' Issue Still Plagues Sabina

By JACK AYER

Record-Herald Staff Writer

SABINA — You can have your choice. Two votes say the principals in the police chief struggle were to meet Thursday night.

Two more votes say no such thing.

Whatever the case, no meeting was held. And Sabina goes into its second week with two "chiefs of police"—E. T. (Tiff) Haines and Robert (Newt) Morris.

"As far as I'm concerned, the matter is closed and there was no need for a meeting," Mayor H. W. Hill, champion of Haines' cause, declared Thursday night. He stated flatly that he knew of no plans for one.

Standing by the mayor was Robert McKenzie, chairman of council's police-fire committee. He said he'd heard of no meeting—and he pointed out that only he and the mayor had power to call one.

BUT COUNCILMEN Cecil Anders and Charles Moore, the other two members of the committee, took exception.

They said that, not only was a meeting scheduled, but that an "informal" session with the mayor had been held Tuesday at which

Russian Blunts Ike's Impact

Europe Ponders Moves By U. S. Chief, Bulganin

LONDON — Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal for summit talks today blunted the impact on Western European opinion of President Eisenhower's call for peace through strength.

Instead of having the newspapers all to himself, Eisenhower had to share space with Bulganin and in some cases took second place to the Soviet premier.

But there were no immediate signs that Bulganin had caused new divisions of opinion in Western ranks.

Rather, Western Europe's newspapers gave their readers the impression that Eisenhower and Bulganin were engaging in a dialogue of peace—a conversation that did not fit together very well but was of tremendous importance for the entire world.

Except in the Communist papers, editorial writers gave support to the lines of the President's State of the Union message. But there were doubts whether the President could secure final congressional approval for his expensive and complex program.

THE WEST showed no signs of being rushed into top-level talks. London's Conservative Daily Telegraph said in its news columns: "It is most unlikely that the Western powers will agree to such a meeting without holding a foreign ministers' or other lower-level conference first."

West Berlin's pro-Socialist Telegraph was critical of Eisenhower's speech, saying it was hardly suitable "to give a new uplift to the peoples' hopes for peace and relaxation of tension."

But in Italy a high foreign ministry official said the Eisenhower message "has shown once again the great political wisdom of the President of the United States."

Painesville Fair Barn, 10 Horses Lost in Fire

PAINESVILLE — Fire destroyed a barn and 10 horses Thursday at the Lake County Fairgrounds at an estimated loss of $30,000.

Fire Chief C. Gordon Smith of Painesville said an overheated oil burner apparently had ignited straw in the barn. About 75 firemen fought the blaze and succeeded in saving a barn adjacent to the one that burned down.

Waverly Cop Is Shot by Ex-VA Patient

WAVERLY — A Waverly policeman was shot twice in the back today by a former veterans' hospital patient who police said went "berserk" in this Pike County town of 5,000 people.

The shooting took place near a restaurant at 11:30 a. m. after police had been called out on a report that a man had kicked out windows of a service station and was causing other damage to business places.

Patrolman Mike Lewis, 32, was shot twice in the back and only escaped a third shot, police said, because a gun held by John Manbevers, 34, of Waverly, failed to go off.

Other police and deputy sheriffs arrived on the scene and chiefly due to the efforts of Mayor Robert Markham, police said, Manbevers was subdued and taken into custody.

Manbevers, according to Patrolman Paul Durham, is a World War II veteran and a former patient at Chillicothe Veterans' Hospital. It was Patrolman Durham who said that the man apparently went "berserk."

When Patrolman Lewis got to the scene, he took Manbevers out of a restaurant and a struggle over the policeman's gun followed. Manbevers got the gun, police said, and started to run with Patrolman Lewis after him. Then, Patrolman Durham reported, Manbevers turned and fired just as Lewis was ducking behind a parked automobile. Manbevers followed up and fired another time as close range at the policeman.

"I've got a day patrolman, a night patrolman, an extra patrolman and the chief (Tiff). That's the end of it as far as I'm concerned."

But Anders and Moore said that, as far as they're concerned, the end is yet to come.

Ike Hits 'Rivalries'

IN HIS STATE OF THE UNION message, President Eisenhower demanded "unified direction" of the armed forces while declaring that the United States still has the power to smash Soviet aggression. He pointed away at "harmful rivalries" in the military services.

Ike's New Budget Said $73.8 Billion

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower will send to Congress Monday a missile age budget calling for $73.8 billion or more in spending and an increase in the federal debt ceiling, government informants said today.

The new budget, covering the 1959 fiscal year starting next July 1, will be precariously balanced, as Eisenhower hinted in his State of the Union message Thursday.

But the President will notify Congress that the supposedly balanced budget for the present government year is now expected to show a small deficit instead of a planned $1 1/2 billion surplus.

Eisenhower reportedly will attribute the return to deficit financing to two factors: (1) A $1.3 billion increase in scheduled defense department outlays; and (2) a drop of about $1 billion in estimated revenues, caused by declining business profits and personal income.

THE DEFICIT will be well under half a billion dollars, inform-

Ike Exclaims: 'Good!' When Told of Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — The U. S. Air Force successfully launched its fourth Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile today.

The giant missile rose from its launching pad, in a puff of white smoke and a tremendous flash of flame, at 10:48 a. m. Within 15 minutes the Pentagon announced that "the test, which was not full range, was successful."

This meant that the Atlas, designed to fly more than 5,000 miles, was assigned a shorter range for this test flight and operated accurately over that distance.

It rose slowly through hazy clouds. Its bright trail of fire was visible for three minutes.

The thunder of its mighty engines, a primary motor and two boosters, could be heard even after the missile itself vanished in high clouds.

Shortly before disappearing into the overcast, the missile arched over gradually to the southeast and toward the test range which extends 5,000 miles out across the Atlantic Ocean.

THE ATLAS, designed to carry a hydrogen bomb warhead, is the American answer to the Soviet claim of intercontinental ballistic capability.

This was the second successful firing of "The Beast," as the Atlas builders call it.

On the first two tries, the 70-foot, 100-ton missile started to get out of control shortly after launching and had to be destroyed.

The third launching last Dec. 17 was successful over a 600-mile range. The Air Force said the missile landed in a preselected target area.

When told of the successful launching, President Eisenhower exclaimed: "Good!"

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said that the President got word of the shot while he was conferring with Secretary of the Treasury Anderson.

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) told the Senate Preparedness subcommittee of the successful Atlas test and termed it "quite encouraging."

Johnson said this was only a partial trial of the planned intercontinental weapon.

But he said it added weight to demands of the Senate group that funds for speeding up the actual production of such missiles be provided.

TODAY'S test had been believed scheduled for only about 600 miles. No attempt to fire the Atlas over its full 5,000-mile range is expected until late this year. It is designed to streak that distance in 25 minutes.

The tall, silvery Atlas was rolled away from its working tower shortly after 8 a. m.

A haze enveloped the base and the Atlas was just barely visible to watchers from the beaches.

All Services To Contribute To New Space Warfare Unit

WASHINGTON — The armed forces are expected to contribute both manpower and money to the Pentagon's new agency for planning weapons of space warfare. That organization eventually may work with a fund approaching half a billion dollars.

President Eisenhower, in his State of the Union message, gave a brief outline Thursday of the mission of the "Advanced Research Projects Agency" which Secretary of Defense McElroy is now organizing.

Eisenhower said McElroy is concentrating into the single organization "all the antimissile and satellite technology undertaken within the Department of Defense."

The President also said elsewhere in his address that "we must be forward-looking in our research and development to anticipate and achieve the unimaginable weapons of the future."

The antimissile missile problem comes within the scope of the new agency's activity for two reasons: (1) the weapons will be those of the future; and (2) they will work out in the fringes of space to intercept and destroy intercontinental ballistic missiles arching toward American targets at speeds of more than 10,000 miles an hour.

EISENHOWER'S reference to "satellite technology" presumably means the application to military requirements of discoveries made in the development of purely scientific research satellites like the Navy Vanguard and the Army Jupiter-C projects.

This would mean exploration and then development of satellites into actual space vehicles and whole weapons systems for outer space.

One of the earliest efforts of the ARPA probably will be to perfect a television-equipped, unmanned satellite to serve as a vehicle for reconnaissance over literally the whole world.

Protestantism Gets Warning On City Views

COLUMBUS (AP) — Protestant churches are going to have to lose their small-town point of view and learn that big cities present the greatest spiritual challenge of our times, says a top religious leader.

"Let Protestantism surrender the city and it surrenders everything," Dr. Truman B. Douglass told Thursday's final session of a three-day convocation, here.

The convocation, on the city church, was conducted by the United Church of Christ, formed by the merger of the Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed churches.

Dr. Douglass, executive vice president of the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Christian Church, charged Protestantism with holding a "huge prejudice" against big cities.

"The point of view of contemporary Protestantism is essentially that of the farm and village, a disastrous evasion of the church's greatest responsibility and opportunity in our time," Dr. Douglass said.

Not even the apparently successful Protestant churches in metropolitan centers understand the true character of urban life, he continued, and all Protestantism has a tendency to regard the big city as "the enemy" of the Christian way of life.

Dave Beck Jr. Denied Second Larceny Trial

SEATTLE (AP) — Superior Judge George H. Revell Thursday turned down a plea by Dave Beck Jr., son of the retiring president of the Teamsters Union, for a new trial on grand larceny charges.

Young Beck and his father were both convicted in separate jury trials late last year of misappropriating the proceeds, $6,550, from the sale of three union-owned cars. Both asked for new trials on grounds of juror prejudice and errors in instructions.

Subordination of Education For Military Seen Possible

CINCINNATI (AP) — Although admitting that competent scientists are needed, the Commission on Christian Higher Education of the Methodist church declared here today "we must not subordinate our education to the aims of military efficiency."

"Our nation cannot idolize science without falling under Divine Judgment," said a commission report made at the group's annual meeting here.

"America could improve her scientific techniques while the culture could speed its way toward barbarism," the report continued. "If our main distinction should turn out to be that we surpassed the Russians in producing the tools of death, then our culture would not deserve to survive."

The commission's report was read by The Rev. John O. Gross of Nashville, Tenn., chairman, at the opening of the first of three Methodist educational meetings.

Referring to "the grim showdown with Russia for scientific mastery," the report said:

"That America must have competent scientists is a conclusion about which there is no debate. But to reach this goal we need not make all of our life subordinate to a drive to match Soviet scientific achievements. We do not want our nation's life 'sovietized.'"

"We need something more than one-track minds steeped in the language and skills of science. We want people with capacity to assume the awesome spiritual responsibilities that face the Western world. We need the sort of education that unifies moral and social responsibility with technical competence."

It also asserted the church must encourage a "fundamental re-

Plan Arranged For Joe Louis To Pay Taxes

CHICAGO (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis says he has signed an agreement with the federal government to make payments on his $1.4 million in taxes of $1/4 million at the rate of $20,000 a year.

Arthur J. Wilson, Louis' accountant, indicated that an understanding has been reached with the Internal Revenue Service and an agreement set up.

"However, I want to make it clear that the government has not entered into any agreement to accept less than the amount owed," Wilson said. "We have some hope that if he follows the plan we have agreed upon, the government in a few years may call matters even."

"This is contingent on two things—ability to pay and good faith. If Joe shows an effort to keep up current taxes and shows good faith in trying to reduce the amount owed in back taxes, then there may be a compromise which would tend to settle his tax problems once and for all."

Louis earned $4,606,721.69 in his 17 years as a professional and he once commented that "I just don't know where all the money went."

State of U. S. Business Still Seen Confused

Employment Price Fluctuations Add To Cross Currents

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen now have the president's views on the state of the union. But their own views on the state of business continues confused today — most agree that over-all it is declining but in some sectors it's looking up.

News of rehiring is mixed in with reports of more layoffs. Strength of some commodity prices tempers the news of weakness in others.

Retail sales gains in some lines offset dips in others.

Prospects of new defense orders heartens some primary producers and the large number of supplier industries that service them. But other companies report a slump in new orders.

Here are some of today's cross currents:

Chrysler announces it's laying off 4,000 workers in two of its auto making divisions. But it will add 4,000 to missile making plants.

United Auto Workers Union officials say that General Motors is idling 8,800 workers. Ford has reported cuts in employment. U.S. Rubber will idle 1,300.

Auto dealers' stocks are estimated at 740,000, which is 200,000 more cars than at the start of the year.

The plight of many railroads has been well aired of late. Overall employment in the rail industry has slipped below one million for the first time in 18 years.

Layoffs in steel have become commonplace. But Republic is calling off its plan to idle 1,500 in Alabama.

International Harvester reports its employment rolls are now 1,000 fatter than a month ago.

On the commodity front price weakness has reappeared in copper, zinc and lead continue on the weak side, as well as wool, coffee, tea and rubber.

But cocoa prices have been rising and there's firmness in sugar prices.

Crude oil prices, which rose during the Suez Canal crisis, are now threatened by high inventories, the dispute over imports, and the less than expected demand. Humble Oil & Refining has just cut the price of Southwest Texas crudes.

High inventories — and the efforts to trim them — have plagued many other industries.

Manufacturers' stocks at 53 1/2 billion dollars are still 1 1/2 billion higher than a year ago.

The retail front has suffered much less than the manufacturing one. The newly elected president of the National Retail Merchants Assn., George W. Dowdy, Charlotte, N. C., retailer, tells reporters that a dip of one or two percent in sales this spring is possible.

And he predicts profits won't fare so well and merchants will have a hard row to hoe.

The state of business? Take your choice.

Dayton Hopes Newspapers To Publish Soon

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Dayton today has hope that local newspapers will publish in the near future.

Dayton Newspapers, Inc., which has not published either of its two papers, the morning Journal Herald or the afternoon Daily News, since Dec. 20, settled its dispute with the International Mailers' Union, Local 137, Thursday and went into negotiations with the Stereotype Union today.

The settlement of the mailers' strike came in a meeting Thursday Commissioner U. S. Young of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service reported. A two-year contract was signed later.

Robert A. Wolfe, executive vice president and general manager of the company, said:

"It is not possible at this time to say how soon the Journal Herald and the Daily News will be able to resume publication."

He said all operations halted when the strike of 64 mailers began Dec. 20 and it will take some time to get the plant mechanically ready to turn out newspapers.

He also said there is still the contract with the Stereotype Union to be negotiated. He said earlier Thursday an agreement has been reached with the pressmen.

Raymond E. Brown, president of the mailers' local, said the two major issues in the dispute were a time-and-a-half provision between day and night shifts and the interchangeability of work between afternoon and morning newspapers.

He reported the new contract calls for time-and-a-half provision for all regular employees. Substitute employees will be permitted to work days and nights, not in the same 24-hour period, for straight time rates.

On the other major issue, Wolfe announced the union abandoned its demand for jurisdictional separation between day and night shifts and accepted interchange of work personnel between shifts.

The contract calls for a $4.50 a week pay increase for the first year and an additional $4 increase for the second year. They now receive $94 a week for day work; $98 nights.

Ohio GI Taken Off Ship During Voyage

NEW YORK (AP) — A soldier bound for Germany was transferred at sea early today to allow him to visit a brother critically injured in Marietta, Ohio.

The Navy Military Sea Transportation Service said Pvt. Thomas Long of Marietta was transferred by small boat at 1 a. m. from the transport Randall to the U.S.N.S. Merrill, a cargo ship. The two ships met in the Atlantic Ocean, about 180 miles east of New York.

Long's brother was crushed by a heavy tree Thursday in Marietta, and is in a hospital there.

Marion Man Endorsed For $15,000 Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio House Republicans have endorsed Harry Brookshire, executive assistant to Postmaster General Summerfield, for the $15,000-a-year job as House minority clerk.

The group, meeting in caucus, chose Brookshire, of Marion, Ohio, over the only other active candidate for the job. That was D. Joe Bartlett, son-in-law of former Ohio Sen. George Bender. Bartlett is House minority reading clerk.

Detroit Youth Killed in Ohio Police Chase

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — Pursued into this north-central Ohio community by a highway patrolman who noted their high rate of speed, a Detroit youth was killed and another injured when the 1958 model sedan they were driving hit a tree Thursday night.

The car had been stolen in Detroit, the Highway Patrol said. They said the injured youth, believed to have been the driver, is being held at Bucyrus City Hospital while the matter "is checked out with Detroit police."

The injured youth was identified by patrolmen as David J. Cernance, 15, of Detroit. A patrolman who said Cernance is "ambulatory," added that it was "the worst wreck I ever saw anyone crawl out of alive."

The other occupant of the car, identified as John De Kun, 17, of Detroit, was killed.

Patrolman R. D. Clements, who spotted the car going east on U.S. 30 North at high speed, turned around and gave chase. The patrol said he slowed down as the chase took both cars inside the city limits here, but the car being chased continued at high speed, went off a curve and hit a tree. Clements did not know it was a stolen car at the time, the patrol added.

Eye Specialist To Speak to Lions Club

Dr. Stanley L. Barton, Columbus eye specialist who maintains an office here at 207 Central Place, will address the Washington C. H. Lion Club at its Tuesday night meeting at the Country Club.

His subject will be "Preventive Measures for Blinding Diseases."

Dr. Barton, an associate professor at Ohio State University's college of medicine, took his pre-medicine course at Bowling Green University; and received his degree in medicine at Wayne University in Detroit. He interned at the Receiving Hospital in Detroit, after taking special courses in eye diseases at the Kresge Eye Institute of Wayne University.

He served two years with the Army Medical Corps in the Far East during World War II.

The coming Tuesday meeting is considered one of the most important on the Lions Club calendar, because the major Lion project the world over is its sight-saving program.

Members of the program committee are James Hutton, Howard McDonald and Frank Dill.

Civil Service Week - Meaning of the System

A reminder has been sent to us that January 12 to 18 is Civil Service Week, which calls attention to the importance of this system in this country since it started almost three quarters of a century ago. January 16, 1883, when the Civil Service Act was signed into law.

We are told by our local postmaster that there are plans underway to make 1958 a Civil Service Year with emphasis throughout the country on spreading information for the public to learn more about this merit system and what it means toward orderly government operations.

Of course there have been many critics of the system, particularly among the professional politicians who would much prefer to retain rights for a complete change of employees everytime there is a turnover in political offices after an election.

On the whole, however, the system has produced benefits which are better than the old "political spoils" method.

To the one who applies for a state or federal job and for the one who is a state or federal career worker, the merit system is a guarantee that he may qualify for a job on the basis of ability to do the work, without discrimination with regard to race, religion, national origin, or politics. It entitles him to consideration for promotions on the same basis, and it provides protection from arbitrary dismissal and from being obliged to render any political service or tribute.

To the citizen who is not a state or federal employee and who does not seek such employment, the merit system theoretically guarantees selection of the best qualified people available for the public service. It requires of public servants high standards of conduct and competence in their employment.

To all citizens it means a stable government service capable of preserving the continuity of essential government programs required by the American people. It means freedom from the upheavals of the old "spoils" system which, with each change of administration, saw mass removals of government workers under which government machinery was sometimes brought to almost a complete standstill for a time.

The civil service system over the years since its founding has been held to be a guarantee to the public of government administration in the best interests of all the people. President Theodore Roosevelt said in 1906, "... I am inclined more and more to feel that the observance in letter and spirit of the civil service law is the first requisite in obtaining clean, decent, efficient government service in any branch or bureau of the government."

Clemency Pleas Are Filed For Slayers of Cincy Cop

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Pardons and Parole Commission Thursday heard clemency pleas for two Cincinnati men sentenced to die in the electric chair Jan. 23 for the slaying of Cincinnati detective Walter Hart.

The commission will make a report to Gov. C. William O'Neill who will decide whether Robert Jackson and Lemuel (Sam) Trotter should be granted executive clemency.

Hart was slain during the Sept. 19, 1955, holdup of the Grey Eagle cafe in Cincinnati. He and six other persons had been ordered into a wash room after they surrendered their wallets to holdup men.

Hart opened the door of the washroom and began firing. He was shot. Attorneys Albert A. Rogoff and Eugene Smith pleaded for Jackson. Smith said Jackson, a 41-year-old roofer, at all times maintained he did not know where he was going before the holdup and that Jackson was not in the cafe at the time.

"We feel that the man who did not fire the shot deserves clemency consideration," Smith said.

Rogoff said Jackson was in a hallway 150 to 200 feet away from the cafe at the time because he was too intoxicated to take part in the holdup.

"He should be punished but not with the electric chair," Rogoff said. "All he did was give someone a gun and said do what you want to with it."

Tallmadge Youth Loses Driver Rights

COLUMBUS (AP)—A Summit county boy is the first Ohio juvenile to lose his driver's license under a new state law.

He is Autry Thomas Ramey, 17, of Tallmadge, who was convicted twice in October of operating an auto with a loud muffler and again early in November on the same charge.

The new law provides automatic one-year suspension of a "junior probationary" license after conviction for three moving traffic violations.

Wild West Has Gone Mild

NEW YORK (AP)—What are they doing to the wild, Wild West and the saddle-sore hero of yore—the American cowboy?

In both the movies and television this emblem of American masculinity has fallen upon sad times. One who knew him in his prime has a hankering, now and then, to see him climb aboard old Pinto for the last time, turn and wave farewell, and canter off into oblivion.

What am I so peeved about? Well, I'll tell you, pardner. I'm plumb spirit-fractured about how they have watered down the good old-fashioned horse opera, and turned the cowboy, the sheriff and the U.S. marshal into little Lord Fauntleroy in smockers.

The horse opera in its original form was one of the simplest and most satisfying art mediums ever devised. The villain reeked of evil, the heroic cowboy reeked of dust and sweat. He gunned down the bad man, virtue triumphed, and everybody left the theater feeling he had got his "meat" worth, which is what it cost to go to a movie in those days.

But today you can pay $1.50, and instead of Zane Grey or Max

Brand, you get two hours of Sig-mund Freud—in color. You are left to mull over whether the sheriff shot the bad man because of an Oedipus complex, and whether the bad man really was bad or just a crazy kid with a mixed up kid.

Shades of William S. Hart, the pattern of all movie cowboys! Since he, Harry Carey, Hoot Gibson and Tom Mix passed from the screen, the movie cowboy has gone nowhere but downhill.

Pardner, those galoots were real hairy-chested bucks. They looked like cowboys. They wore bandanas, leather arm cuffs, and leather or sheepskin chaps—"he same clothes the honest working cowboy once wore. They hung out in saloons when they weren't out on the range, and they weren't afraid to belly up to the bar and belt down four fingers of bourbon, the breakfast of champions.

"But today? The cowboy has been prettified beyond belief. He relies on his guitar as much as his gun. Except for his sombrero and six-shooter, he is dressed like Ivy League—who wants to wear those itchy old chaps any more?

The movie cowboy now avoids those nasty old saloons as much as possible. He leaves for Eagle Pass from a cozy restaurant, where he takes more coffee breaks than a stenographer. In stead of dance hall dames, whose morals at best were never questionable, your modern horse opera is populated by lacy school teachers, beautiful young cafe waitresses, and other would-be pioneer moths.

On television, with a few exceptions such as "Gunsmoke," the horse opera is even more sickeningly sterile. Instead of going "bang!" the guns go "ping?" Yes, the sound even has a question mark behind it, like this—"ping? ping? ping?"

Of course, on TV the model modern law feller tries to avoid a showdown. Any night now I expect to see the hero tell the bad man: "Drop that gun, son. Why not go along with me and see my psychiatrist? He'll show you how to get rid of those aggressive impulses. Look what he did for me."

Yep, the wild, Wild West is getting mild, mild, mild. You take the frontier, pardner. I'm sad-dling up and going back to Mother Goose, where the tales are rougher but more satisfying.

Mr. Khrushchev's Ambition

Khrushchev's desire for a new year is undoubtedly for Eisenhower to join him in a private tete-a-tete, a conference for only the two of them, with interpreters, of course.

Then the United States and Soviet Russian would divide the world between them, much as Stalin and Hitler divided the world between them in 1939 when they met in alliance and produced the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact.

The only trouble is that Khrushchev, having achieved that solar position in the Soviet hierarchy which makes him responsible to no one, could bind his country to such a whimsical notion; Eisenhower, being a constitutional president, cannot bind the United States to any secret arrangements, treaties requiring the consent of the Senate and therefore must be published at least in the "Congressional Record" when such consent is given.

Furthermore, while Soviet Russia owns a number of satellites into which it can send troops to repress the people as it did into Hungary, the United States is bound by a treaty with the United Nations and with the NATO powers and with the SEATO powers to keep them fully informed and to give due consideration to their views.

The President of the United States is therefore in no position to act as though he alone mattered and as though his opinion must prevail. He is circumscribed by the Constitution and is bound by treaty relationships.

Although it is true that some presidents, particularly such a one as Franklin D. Roosevelt, often acted monarchically because their popularity encouraged them to believe that the people would back them up, realistically it is a dangerous procedure because Americans are volatile and often reverse themselves.

For instance, whereas Dwight D. Eisenhower was the most popular President ever chosen at the beginning of his career, not even his ardent admirers will say that currently the American people unanimously hold him in such esteem.

While it is possible in Soviet Russia to acknowledge Khrushchev as the leader of the country, it is not possible for an intelligent man to hold such a position concerning any president of the United States. He is not even the leader of his own party and historically rarely has been.

In Soviet Russia, it is true of the first secretary of the Communist party, "he leads and I follow"; in the United States the nature of citizenship is such that the right of the citizen to the exercise of free judgment is constitutionally guaranteed and at least once every two years, it is the function of citizenship to vote for or against national public officers. At least once every four years, a President stands before the people for their decision as to his worthiness and if he runs for a second time, it amounts to a referendum as to whether the people regard him as competent to hold office at all.

Should the American people in 1958 overwhelmingly vote Democratic, Eisenhower would be a very lame duck indeed, as such an election would be regarded as a referendum on the Eisenhower policies.

The President is therefore a very different kind of official from the first secretary of the Communist party USSR (B).

The latter is an autocrat who does not rule by divine right but because he has manipulated himself into supreme power; the former is a servant of his people, limited by the Constitution and the voters' confidence in his ability to serve them, to maintain in their honor and dignity and to preserve us a nation.

Fortunately the American people have been spared from both absolutism and the leadership principle.

A meeting between Khrushchev and Eisenhower therefore could not accomplish more than if our principal allies were also present, because they would have to be informed or we might find ourselves without bases and without allies.

As matters stand today, it would be much more important and more effective to straighten

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY
Don't try to make "cattle guards in gateways out of hollow concrete blocks—for the cattle and even hogs, walk right over them.

This is the advice of Mrs. W. C. Vernon, who lives on Route 38, two miles north of Bloomington. She says she has learned that other farm owners besides the Vernons have tried the "cat-le guard" and found it a failure.

When the Vernons' twin sons, Gene and Glenn, read in "The Furrow" magazine that a cheap cattle guard could be made by placing concrete blocks on end—five blocks wide and seven blocks long, they started to make such a cattle guard in a gateway near the barn.

Wishing to make the cattle guard a substantial one, they excavated for 30 inches, applied two feet of gravel, and placed the blocks, many more than the plan called for (which was to cost $5.60). When it was completed they felt sure of success.

However they soon discovered that not only cattle but hogs walked right over the guard, stepping on the concrete between the openings in the blocks. "Mrs. Vernon figured, labor and all, the cost was $52, and wishes to warn others who might try the "concrete block cattleguard" to let it alone. It does not work!

CITY GROWING, AND HOW!

That Washington C. H. has made a big growth during the last 20 years in both population and industry, is graphically illustrated by postal receipts for the past year compared with those of 20 years ago, or L. 1937.

During 1957 postal receipts here reached $168,851.29, or slightly more than four times the total receipts in 1937, when they totaled $43,133.

The gain has been steady year after year, and during the past 12 months the gain was $5,935.64 over the 1956 receipts.

Twenty years ago a gain of about $2,500 over the 1936 receipts was shown.

USE PRESSURE-CREOSOTED WOOD

Low cost, simple construction, efficient design have won widespread popularity for pole-type construction in recent years.

When planning that new pole barn, however, there's one thing to remember: Be sure every piece of wood that is near the ground is pressure-treated with coal-tar creosote.

Protected against wood-destroying fungi, termites and carpenter ants by such treatment with Barrett coal-tar creosote, your barn will be assured a long life of sturdy service. Come in soon and look over our wide selection of pressure-treated poles, lumber and fence posts.

Anna Bank Cashier Enters Guilty Plea

DAYTON (AP)—Archie Fridley, 68-year-old cashier at the Anna Farmers and Merchants Bank, pleaded guilty Thursday to making false entries in bank records over the past 17 years. The bank losses had totaled $28,651.

Fridley, an employee at the bank for nearly 30 years, was charged specifically with three counts of making false entries in bank records. FBI agents said they were unable to file embezzlement charges against Fridley because they could not prove he took the money for his own use.

Fridley's attorneys said he has made restitution of $27,552.

Cecilians Elect Officers At Home of Mrs. Lawyer

Members of the Cecilians attended their semi-annual business meeting Wednesday night when Mrs. William Lawyer was hostess to the group at her lovely home on Golfview Drive.

The Club Collect was read in unison to open the meeting and the hymn of the month, "Hail to the Lord's Anointed," was read by Mrs. Paul S. Craig, president, and played on the piano by Mrs. Herbert Hoppes.

Mrs. Virgil Dwyer was introduced as program chairman for the evening. A novelty piano number, "An Orange on Black," was capably played by Mrs. Edwin Buck, who cleverly used an orange in playing her own arrangement of the selection.

A recording of Benjamin Britten's, "Cerephony of Carols," was played and Mrs. John Rhodes gave a brief history of the music and its composer. The record was sung by the Copenhagen's Boys' Choir and was under the direction of the composer. The Cecilian members were given copies of the music to follow while listening to the record.

Two accordion numbers, "Melody in C," by N. Alfred Sillari, and the hymn "Whispering Hope" were played by Mrs. Dwyer to conclude the program. A brief and interesting explanation of the accordion was also given by Mrs. Dwyer.

The business session conducted by Mrs. Craig included the election of officers for the coming year. The list, prepared by the nominating committee, Mrs. Maurice Hopkins, Mrs. J. Rankin Paul and Mrs. Ira Barchet, was read by Mrs. Lawyer.

Officers voted to serve are Miss Clara Belle Robinson, president; Mrs. Charles Sheridan, vice president; Mrs. Lawyer, recording secretary; Mrs. Malcolm Parrett, reporting secretary; Mrs. Perry Grimm, treasurer; Miss Margaret Gibson, music librarian; and Miss Jane Trent, scrapbook chairwoman.

Past HD Club Councillors Hold Meeting Thursday

Former Fayette County Home Demonstration Council members learned of the activities and organization of an Alumnae Council from two Madison County women Thursday. Mrs. Raymond Lannigan, former Madison County Alumnae Council President, and Mrs. Robert Halterman, spoke to the group.

Mrs. Lannigan noted that the Madison County group is made up of women who have served on the Home Demonstration Council for their two-year term. She said the Alumnae group offers these past councillors an opportunity to continue the associations and educational and service activities of a county-wide group.

Mrs. Halterman pointed out that while the active Council has affiliation and responsibilities to the Home Demonstration clubs in the county as well as to district and state home demonstration work, the Alumnae Council is an independent group.

The women present decided to have a program in February of interest to former home demonstration councillors. At this time a decision will be made for organization of an Alumnae Council. Program committee members for this meeting are Mrs. Frank L. Lannum, Mrs. Thomas Stultz, Mrs. Richard Carson and Mrs. Leonard Slager.

Mrs. Slager, alumnae chairwoman of the present Home Demonstration Council, presided at the meeting Thursday. Council officers served refreshments to the group following the meeting.

Circle IV Meets In Gossard Home

The Bible study on "Meet Dr. Luke" was given by Mrs. William Allen. Mrs. Mary Gillespie was in charge of the program.

Miss Jane Jefferson read from the Year Book of Prayer and closed the meeting with prayer. Miss Gossard was assisted in the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Bishop and Miss Jefferson.

Mrs. Mellick Lyons read an article entitled "Sermon for the New Year." The meeting was closed with the benediction.

Mrs. Stephenson was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lester Stephenson.

The guests were Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Stephenson.

Browning Club Enjoys Program On 'Religion of Primitive Man'

The Browning Club met in the home of Mrs. Robert Ferguson Tuesday night. Mrs. Donald Murdock, president, opened by leading the group in the Club Collect.

Mr. Don Wood, commentator for the program, was introduced by Mrs. Murdock.

In the absence of Mrs. Harry Elliott, chairman, Miss May Duffee, vice chairman, took charge of the notes. Mrs. Murdock read the quotation for the evening from Copernicus - "To know the mighty works of God, to comprehend His wisdom and majesty and power; to appreciate, in a degree, the wonderful working of His laws, surely all must be pleasing and acceptable mode of worship to the Most High to whom ignorance cannot be more grateful than knowledge."

Mrs. Margaret Soale, secretary, and Mrs. Versa Angus, treasurer, gave their reports. After a short business session Mrs. Murdock introduced Mrs. Emerson Chapman, who gave a most interesting paper on "Religion of Primitive Man."

"In the modern study of primitive religion, she said, 'the philosophy of uncultured people has to be taken into consideration. The study easily falls into two great divisions. The first is the study of religion in general and its grounds for belief in God.

Second is the study of revealed religion and its grounds for Christian belief.

"The discussion of general religion leads to the inborn belief of every human being in a God, or gods. Everyone must worship something, whether it be himself, a movie idol, the sun, the moon or the stars, wealth, renown, or the true God. The African savage, chanting his weird incantations around his jungle fire is worshipping something, he knows not what.

"Fetichism was promoted by fear and never by devotion. A fetich might be an image, although it differed from an idol, which is the image of a divinity or a God. The fetich, man or witch doctor as he was called, was credited with having a controlling influence over the elements, the wind and the water, and dealt with spirits and ghosts. Fetichism has gradually faded away.

"Paganism, includes all religions other than true religion revealed by God. Christianity is a supernatural.

Mr. Wood, as commentator, suggested a discussion of the subject. He said - "Why a God? To whom do most of us turn when we are sick or in trouble; is it God or some love one?" He spoke of soldiers injured or ill or just homesick in the war - whom did they want or pray for - home, mother or sweetheart. God meant that to them. Primitive man looked to symbols first to express his thoughts and we still use symbols to express our religious thoughts. Why do we think there is an after life? What becomes of the insects and animals that live and die? There was an interesting discussion on these subjects. Most everyone desires to believe in something and we must talk and study and believe in the teachings of the Holy Bible.

Mrs. Murdock closed the meeting with the benediction. Mrs. Ferguson, assisted by the committee, served delightful refreshments.

Mrs. Douds Hostess To Church Class

The January meeting of the Leadership Training Class of the First Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Douds Wednesday with Mrs. M. E. Farmer, Mrs. Forest Stevens and Mrs. Neil Hand acting as co-hostesses.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. George Robinson, president for the coming year.

Mrs. William Tooker gave the class a report on the family they assisted at Christmas. The group expressed their appreciation to Mr. Walter Coil who repaired the larger toys the class had donated for the family.

Mrs. Robinson appointed her committees for the following year, after which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostesses.

Circle II Holds January Meeting

Circle II of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church met Wednesday afternoon in the church house with 21 members and one guest, Mrs. Dwight Roads Jr., attending.

Mrs. P. C. Harlow, leader, opened the meeting with prayer. She then introduced the officers of the Circle, after which a discussion was held on plans for the new year. Members were reminded of their "least coin" envelopes, and to remember the date of Thursday, Jan. 16, as bandage rolling and sewing day at the church house.

Mrs. Howard Perrill led the Bible study, basing it on the book

"Meet Dr. Luke," which is being used by Presbyterian women in all countries of the world for the year of 1958.

The gospel of Luke was written about 84 A.D. after Dr. Luke had been a companion of Paul and Barnabas on their missionary journeys. He wrote very clear accounts of the birth, life and death of Jesus, in the gospels of St. Luke and the Acts.

The program, led by Mrs. Robert Harper, was based on the book "The Word, the World, and the Way."

A question and answer period brought out much discussion by

Cincy Cager Is Lauded for Scoring Spree

Indiana-Born Star Dunks 56 Points as Seton Hall Is Beaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson, a hep Hoosier who scores points and shuns stardom, was the big man of college basketball today, the toast of even the usually hard-to-please New York critics.

The 6-foot-5 sophomore from Indianapolis scored 56 points as Cincinnati's barreling Bearcats whipped Seton Hall 118-54 Thursday night.

Oscar bettered the all-time record by a collegian in Madison Square Garden for total points and field goals—and was every bit as good a team man as he was a scorer.

The victory boosted the twice-beaten Bearcats, seventh in this week's Associated Press poll, into their ninth victory.

Third-ranked and once beaten North Carolina pulled away late in the game and defeated Virginia 82-66 in an Atlantic Coast Conference scrap. The Tar Heels, now 11-1, was the only other top 10 team in action.

Robertson's production bettered Harry Boykoff's 54 points for St. John's against St. Francis in 1947 and topped by one the field goal record set by DePaul's all-time great, George Mikan, with 21 against Rhode Island in 1945.

Robertson said he didn't know what or whose record he had broken until after being pulled from the game after a pair of free throws for his 55th and 56th points with 2:46 left.

His 56 points were nowhere near the national, major college record. Furman's All America Frank Selvy scored 100 against Newberry in 1954. Nor did it push him past Kansas' Wilt Chamberlain in the season scoring race. Oscar now has scored 353 points for a 32.1 average. Wilt has a 32.2 average on 322 points in 10 games.

With Connie Dierking, out for four games with an injury, back in the lineup (he scored 19), and the rest of the Bearcats near their best, Oscar had to hustle and work for 35 minutes. Then with five minutes left and 46 points in the bag his teammates started to feed him and Robertson took off, urged along by the crowd of 4,615.

Cincinnati's total also set a Garden record, bettering the one-team mark set at 116 by Bradley last season.

North Carolina got past Virginia with a 12-point spurt in the last three minutes that junked a close battle. Pete Brennan scored 29 points for the defending NCAA champs, who trailed 33-30 at the half.

Wake Forest blew a nine-point halftime lead, then got rolling again in the last 10 minutes for an 87-63 victory over South Carolina in another ACC game.

Xavier of Ohio defeated Iona 71-61 in the other half of the Garden twin bill.

Ohioan Impressive In Ring Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If stocky Davey Moore needed just one more impressive showing to get in line for a shot at the world featherweight title, his chances should look good today.

The young puncher from Springfield, Ohio, weighing 128½, left an excellent impression with 5,000 fans at Olympic Auditorium Thursday night and a painful one with Mexico's featherweight titleholder, Victor Manuel Quijano, who weighed 128.

Moore, rated third in his division by the National Boxing Assn., stopped Quijano after 1:57 of the 9th round.

2 Cincinnati Cage Outfits Take Top Honors in Gotham

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Cincinnati basketball teams took all the honors in games Thursday night in New York's Madison Square Garden, but it was a transplanted Hoosier who really stole the spotlight.

A University of Cincinnati sophomore from Indianapolis, Oscar Robertson, turned on one of the greatest one-man collegiate scoring sprees in Garden history to almost single handedly defeat Seton Hall.

The Bearcats swamped the New Jersey team 118-54 and Robertson alone edged them 56-54.

The 6-5 flash received a standing ovation when he was taken out of the game after sinking two free throws with 2:45 remaining to bring his total to 56 points. He hit on 22 of 32 field goals and had 12 out of 12 free throws.

Xavier played in the first game of the doubleheader and dumped Iona of New York 71-61. The one-beaten Musketeers built up a commanding lead in the early minutes and then coasted home for their 10th victory.

Cincinnati's win, which also broke the collegiate Garden scoring record, was the Bearcats' ninth in 11 games.

Otterbein fought off a late game rally to post its first win of the season, 70-67 over Heidelberg in an Ohio Conference game. The Cardinals have been beaten four times, all by conference foes.

For Heidelberg it was their sixth defeat in seven games. They are 1-3 in the conference.

Oberlin was knocked from the ranks of the unbeaten in a non-conference game with Fenn, 61-47.

The Foxes led all the way in

Fayette Horsemen In Spotlight Again

Fayette County horsemen will be very much in the spotlight at the annual district 1 (Ohio) meeting of the U. S. Trotting Assn. in Columbus Tuesday.

Eddie Cobb of Washington C.H. scored a repeat victory as the state's leading money-winning driver while Howard Beissinger of Hamilton displaced Troy's Joe Lighthill as the top race winner.

In retaining the dollar crown, Cobb boosted his earnings from $241,000 to $301,000. Beissinger won 128 races.

Movies of the 1957 Hambletonian and Little Brown Jug will be shown and McKinley Kirk of Washington C. H. and Walter J. Michael of Bucyrus will begin new three-year terms on the Ohio board. Their reelection went uncontested.

Other district directors are Joseph A. Neville of Delaware, William B. Murray of Wellington and Corwin Nixon of Lebanon.

While there is always the possibility that the Horse of the Year title could be awarded to a Fayette County horse, since so many fine horses went to the races from here last year, followers of the trotters and pacers agree that the possibility this year is remote.

District members were polled to

Paul Brown Set Get Look At Draftees

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Saturday's ninth annual Senior Bowl game is made to order for South coach Paul Brown in at least one respect:

He'll get a comparative look at two quarterbacks he'll probably see a lot of later on. Both signal-callers have been drafted by his Cleveland Browns.

Brown has picked Arkansas' George Walker, a 1956 Cleveland draft choice, as his No. 1 quarter.

North coach Joe Kuharich, whose Washington Redskins have only two draftees in the ninth annual All-Star game as compared with five for the Browns, will use Michigan State's Jim Ninowski as his starting quarterback. Ninowski was Cleveland's fourth draft pick last fall.

One of the North's halfbacks will be Washington's top draft choice, Mike Sommer of George Washington. The other Redskins draftee is Tennessee's Bill Anderson, who will play safety for South.

The 50 college seniors taking part, 30 of whom have been drafted by pro clubs, turn professional in the game. Members of the winning squad receive $500 each, the losers $400.

Lou Rymkus Joins Los Angeles Rams

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lou Rymkus went from the Green Bay Packers to the Los Angeles Rams in a matter of a few hours.

He resigned as Green Bay line coach and was promptly hired Thursday as an assistant to Rams head coach Sid Gillman.

The Rams have a line coach, Joe Madro, but general manager Pete Rozelle remarked: "There's no law against having two line coaches." Rymkus is joining the Ram staff immediately.

Canadian Coach Named To Head Chicago Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—Now that the Chicago Cardinals have plucked 41-year-old Frank Ivy from the Canadian Football League as their 19th coach, the question is—Can Ivy revive the cellar-dwelling Cards into a contender in the National Football League?

Ivy, who was appointed coach Thursday night succeeding the resigned Ray Richards, faces a stiff challenge—a challenge that has seen eight Card coaches shuffled out in the last 10 years.

Schafraath, Kremblas Elected Captains

COLUMBUS (AP)—Dick Schafraath and Frank Kremblas are the 1958 Ohio State football team co-captains.

The announcement was made Thursday at the Agonis Club's championship dinner, honoring the Buckeyes' Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl victory. Team members picked the captains.

Schafraath is a 208-pound tackle from Wooster, whom Coach Woody Hayes calls "the best down-field blocker in the country."

Kremblas, a quarterback, is from Akron.

Baseball Star Voted 'Male Athlete of '57'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ted Williams, king of the batters at the age of 39, today was named outstanding male athlete of the year for 1957 in the annual Associated Press year-end poll.

It was the first time in his long, stormy and dramatic career that the tall Boston Red Sox slugger was chosen for the honor, one of the great prizes in sports.

The recognition came seven weeks after he was nosed out by Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees for the most valuable player award of the American League.

The selection by a committee of baseball writers kicked up a mighty storm because one writer picked Williams for ninth place and another name him tenth.

In the AP poll, Williams won by a whopping margin over Milwaukee pitcher Lew Burdette, the star of the World Series, with mid-dleweight boxing champion Carmen Basilio a trailing third.

Mantle, winner of the AP's athlete of the year poll for 1956 and the American League's MVP for 1956 and 1957, finished in a tie for 13th this year with only one first place designation and 14 points.

Williams received 85 first place votes from the 214 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the poll, and 434 points. Points were counted on a basis of three for first, two for second and one for third.

Burdette, who hurled three complete, winning games to beat the Yankees in the series, collected 54 first place votes and 226 points.

Basilio, who moved up from the welterweight championship to the middleweight throne by defeating Sugar Ray Robinson in a stirring battle, garnered 17 first place votes and 113 points.

Mantle received one first place nomination, two for second, and one for third.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles—Frederick C. Miller Memorial Trophy, awarded to the winner of the AP poll, will be presented to Williams later this month.

The highest water fall in the world is Tugela in Natal in the Union of South Africa. Its height is 2,810 feet.

Junior Warriors Beat New Holland

The Madison Mills junior high basketball squad stayed on its toes through the first of the game at New Holland Thursday, but then started building up their lead and finally breezed to an easy 43-29 victory.

Larry Williams led the Madison scoring with 25 points, and was the only boy either team to reach double figures. Eckle led New Holland with eight points, Kirk and Bush trailing with seven each.

Here's a rundown of the scoring: Madison Mills—Webb, 0; Cox, 0; Leonard Williams, 2; LeBeau, 2; Justice, 6; Larry Williams, 25; Martin, 6; Butcher, 2; Grim, 0; Melton, 0; Browning, 6; totals—19-5-43.

New Holland—Curry, 2; Bush, 7; Bowsher, 0; Bowdle, 5; Kirk, 7; Johnson, 0; Eckle, 8; Bochar, 0; totals—11-7-29.

Madison Mills Game Postponed

Madison Mills and Pickaway County's Salter Creek basketball squad will meet Jan. 21 instead of tonight (Friday), Warrior Coach Tolman Mills said Friday.

The game was postponed after a conference between coaches. The game at the later date will still be played as a Madison Mills "home" game on the Good Hope road.</

Plans Outlined For Rotary Club

Little League Clinic Being Considered

Reports from committee chairman on the progress made during the first six months of the Rotary year on various projects together with a discussion of club plans for the remainder of the year, featured the dinner meeting of the Rotary Assembly at Anderson's Restaurant Thursday night.

Among the topics discussed and given favorable consideration was future aid for the special class of retarded children here, which the Rotary Club and several other organizations helped to finance.

Among other matters brought up was the suggestion that the Feb. 4 meeting of the club be a rural-urban session, with each club member asking some rural friend to attend as his guest.

The speaker for that occasion will be James Wells, executive assistant in the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

THE COMING season's plans in connection with Little League Baseball, which the Rotary Club sponsored and which proved such a success among scores of young boys of the community during the past season, were talked over at some length.

The group considered the possibility of having a number of professional players from the Columbus Jets, come here to hold a baseball clinic for the youngsters who take part in the Little League program. While definite action on this has not been taken, it will be brought up in the near future, if satisfactory arrangements can be made with the Jet management.

Bringing into local club programs more foreign students who are attending college in this general area was urged. That it will be given attention as a part of the better "international understanding" Rotary theme, was considered as a definite plan for the immediate future.

The Rotary Assembly is made up of the officers and committee chairman of the club, with each committee submitting a report. Robert Haigler, club president, acted as chairman of the meeting.

Macmillan's Stern Stand Wins Friends

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan seems to have turned a serious clash inside his Cabinet to the political advantage of himself and his Conservative party.

Instead of finding his position with the general public weakened, Macmillan actually may come out stronger from the dispute over the new government budget which produced the surprise resignation of Chancellor of the Exchequer Peter Thorneycroft.

For now Macmillan, as he tours the Commonwealth, stands at home as the defender of the welfare services, as the moderate politician who refused to cut back government expenditures on such things as free milk for children and expectant mothers.

The announced reason for Thorneycroft's resignation Monday was that he insisted that $140 million should be cut from the estimate of government expenditures for the fiscal year that begins April 1. This would have kept 1958-59 spending at this year's level.

After naming Derick Heathcoat Amory the new chancellor, Macmillan took off on schedule the next day for a 39-day Commonwealth tour to India, Pakistan, Ceylon, New Zealand and Australia.

Kidnaper Blames Own Drunkenness

CINCINNATI (AP) — "I was too drunk to know what I was doing" was the excuse given here Thursday by James F. Holland, 28, Lejunior, Ky., for he had been arrested on a charge of kidnaping a 16-year-old Florence, Ky. boy.

Holland waived an examination and U. S. Commissioner Graham P. Hunt ordered him held to the grand jury under $25,000 bond.

Holland was arrested by FBI agents in nearby North Bend Wednesday night. He was accused of having forced Donnie Blaine Martin to drive him to North Bend from Florence.

Convicted Molester Loses Court Appeal

A 23-year-old Fayette County man convicted last March by a Common Pleas Court jury on a charge of felonious assault and taking indecent liberties with an 11-year-old boy has lost his appeal to the Second District Court of Appeals.

Lawrence Snyder, near Jeffersonville, committed to the Lima State Hospital after his conviction, asked the Appeals Court to invalidate the sentence imposed by Judge John H. Houston of Brown County, sitting in Fayette County Common Pleas Court by assignment.

The appellate court, however, sustained the State of Ohio's motion to dismiss the appeal.

Judge Houston had sentenced Snyder to a one-to-10-year term in the Mansfield Reformatory, but suspended sentence and committed the defendant to the Lima hospital for an indefinite period after authorities there adjudged him "mentally deficient with criminal tendencies."

Development Corp. Directors To Meet

Directors of the Washington C. H. Development Corp. will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Hotel Washington banquet room Monday noon. George Baker, the secretary, said the meeting will be held during, and after, lunch, as has been the board's custom.

The secretary said there is "nothing in particular" on the agenda for this meeting, but added that a report may be made by the committee named to look over the area for possible industrial sites.

713X-rays Made Here in 4 Days

Mobile Unit To Stay In County 9 Days

The number of X-rays made at the mobile unit here this week today is approaching 1,000—and a record for one visit of the unit to the county.

Thursday, 217 X-rays were made while the unit was parked on Court St. in front of the courthouse here. This, added to the 713 that had been made during the previous three days when the unit was at the Pennington Bakery, Cudahy Packing Co., National Cash Register Co. and Armo plants here and at Waterloo, brought the four-day total to 910.

Mrs. George Finley, executive secretary of the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Assn., co-sponsor of the X-ray unit's stay here, with the county and state health departments, said "we all feel that this is a fine response by the public."

MRS. FINLEY also had words of praise for the volunteer workers from the Alpha Sigma Epsilon Sorority, Lioness Club and Newcomers Club. These volunteers help with the clerical work in connection with the X-rays made by technicians who accompany the unit. Mrs. Finley said "they have been just wonderful. I don't know how we could have gotten along without their help."

The unit will remain on Court St. Friday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Tuesday (next week) 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Wednesday 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday afternoon the unit will be moved to Jeffersonville, where it will be open from 4 to 7 p.m. and Thursday from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Tentative Plans Made for Holding First Aid Class

The 10-hour course in first aid training for leaders of all youth groups in the county probably will be held from 7:30 to 10 p.m. on four successive Tuesdays. The course is sponsored by the Camp Fire Girls Council.

The time and number of evenings for holding class were decided on at the organization meeting in the Farm Bureau auditorium Thursday night.

There was still one hitch, however—no place for holding the classes has been found yet.

There were 25 representatives from youth groups, mostly Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scouts, at the organization meeting. Mrs. Harford Hankins, chairman of the Camp Fire Girls committee, which is handling the arrangements, said she thought "this was a very good turnout" and added that other adult leaders are expected to enroll before the first class is held.

Mother Kills 3 Children, Then Herself

RENO, Nev. (AP) — "We are all bad seed," read a note left by a wealthy insurance executive's estranged wife.

Her bullet-torn body and those of the couple's three children were found side by side Thursday on a bedroom floor of their $50,000 home.

Victims of what police described as child killing and suicide were Mrs. D. Yvonne Cavanaugh, 34, recently released from a mental hospital, and her children, Anthony, 9, Carol, 8, and Kevin, 4.

Robert Cavanaugh, husband and father, who had been separated from his wife more than six months, was in Chicago when the "hoochings" occurred — apparently after the two older children returned from school Wednesday. Cavanaugh is secretary of the Illinois Commercial Men's Assn.

Asst. Dist. Atty. William Ragio told of blood-spattered and bullet-pocked upstairs walls, indicating that Mrs. Cavanaugh may have chased and shot the children in various rooms before bringing them downstairs to lay them in a row in her lavish bedroom.

A note read: "We are all bad seed. There never were four more unhappy and unhealthy people, and it's getting worse every day."

South Solon Man Killed

Former Washington C. H. Man Critically Injured in Crash

A former Washington C. H. man is in Mercy Hospital in Springfield with critical injuries suffered in an automobile accident in which one passenger was killed and another seriously injured last Tuesday night.

James R. Secrets, 34, of 1303 Walden Ave., Springfield son of Mrs. Delbert Secrets, 216 W. Temple St., here, suffered a broken wrist, skull fracture and internal chest injuries when the car he was driving crashed into a utility pole on First Ave. in Springfield.

Orlyn Fout of Springfield and a former resident of South Solon was killed in the crash and Donald Riley, who also lives on Malden Ave., was seriously injured. Riley also is in Mercy Hospital.

Services for Fout will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Sprague Funeral Home in South Charleston. Burial will be in the South Solon Cemetery.

FOUT was born in South Solon, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fout, and was a graduate of the high school there. Although he was living in Springfield, he was employed in Columbus.

He is survived by two daughters, Debra and Dara; two brothers, Gene of South Solon and Ross of Springfield, and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Disley of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. Secrets said, after she returned from a visit Thursday with her son, that the three men were on their way home from an evening of bowling when the car went out of control on a curve on First Ave. Her son, she explained, was too seriously injured to tell just what happened. He is in room 202 at the hospital but is not permitted to have visitors, she said.

Secrets, who is married and has a daughter, Connie, 7, moved from Washington C. H., where he grew up, to Springfield about 12 years ago. A tool and die machine operator by trade, he had been employed in several Springfield plants, but six weeks ago had gone to the Western Electric Co. plant in Columbus as an inspector.

Could you guess what's good about a headache?

If you happen to have one right now, probably all you need is an aspirin. But the fact is: a headache sometimes is a signal. It may be telling you something is wrong... perhaps something quite remote from the pain. In this event it's a symptom—valuable information for your physician. So if you have a persistent or recurring headache and don't know why, see your doctor. Don't take a chance. Your physician can probably clear up your problem in short order. Of course, he may say all you need is aspirin—but even that's worth knowing.
